The Borsum Estate

Japanese Mingei Pottery Collection

This collection represents an extraordinary gathering of works by Shoji Hamada, Atsuya Hamada, Kanjiro Kawai, and Hiroshi Kawai. The archival documentation contained herein — including original loan agreements, exhibition correspondence, typed inventories, handwritten valuation sheets, and academic letters — establishes provenance connecting this collection to major exhibitions and scholarly figures of the 1960s/70s Mingei movement.

Ms. George Jusupova, Senior Curator of Ceramical Art
Los Angeles County Museum of Art
Exhibit of Ceramics
Los Angeles, CA 90006

Dear Mr. Jusupova:

In 1960 Mr. Brown and I gave a number of ceramic pieces to the Los Angeles County Museum of Art. Some of which are now on display in the Ceramics Gallery. We have dedicated these pieces to you and would like to offer this gift to your museum.

Many of our ceramics were seen by Professor Philip Johnson, who suggested that we might consider a collection of our pieces for a gallery in Toledo. These, which are from Frost 10 to 12, are:

- an emerald halberd saucer, blue-white glaze over white
- an all-white lathe-turned white wavy border plate
- a blue and white lathe-turned white wavy border plate
- a Japanese celadon fish-shaped platter (late 13th century)
- a Japanese celadon fish-shaped platter (late 13th century)
- a set of cup, saucer, and plate, blue and white

Other pieces include:

- a small white lathe turned saucer with fish decoration, made by John A. Pope, to have been used on U.S.A. 1950-51, the first time the U.S. participated in the competition
- a porcelain bowl with white porcelain blue and mottled
- a porcelain, the box dated January 1962
- a porcelain, the box dated January 1962
- a porcelain, the box dated January 1962
- and white with dark green glaze, late 13th century

Perhaps, some day in the near future, you could come to our island to see our collection. We are located on Highway 99, about 1/2 mile from the ocean. We are located on Highway 99, about 1/2 mile from the ocean.

I might add that we not only many years ago during a short while the Russian art on Reproduction Rehearsed and were in your show by Stan and Mary Sestuccia.

Very truly yours

Marjorie E.
